A Message from

HEADQUARTERS 5TH ARMORED DIVISION
OFFICE OF THE COMMANDING GENERAL
CAMP CHAFFEE, ARKANSAS

TO THE MEN OF THE 5TH ARMORED DIVISION:

Although you may remain with the 5th Armored Division only long enough to complete your basic training, you have made the difficult switch from civilian to soldier during your stay at Camp Chaffee.

The type of training you received here is the best in the world! It is a result of lessons learned on battlefields of the past. Among your instructors are combat veterans who have seen action in not only the Korean conflict but World War II.

The knowledge you gained during your training here could be of life-saving benefit to you some day in combat area. Remember all details of your training. They may have seemed of minor importance at the time, but on the battlefield they are all-important.

We are proud to have shared in your training -- Our reward will be the manner in which you serve your country in war and peace.

HISTORY

of the 5th Armored Division

German troops surrender in the fields of France, Aug. 23, 1944.

Tanks of the Fifth Armored move forward past the Guest House of Heeren, Holland.

The history of the 5th Armored Division is one of action, glory and tradition.

Upon activation 1 October, 1941, the division was assigned to Fort Knox, Ky., for training under the Armored Force. In March, 1942, under the command of Major General Jack W. Heard, it was transferred to Camp Cooke, Calif. From August to October, 1942, the unit took part in maneuvers in the Desert Training Center Area. In February of 1943, Major General Lunsford E. Oliver, who trained, led and fought with the division during the remaining years of the war, assumed command. In March, 1943, and from April to June, 1943, the 5th Armored maneuvered in Tennessee under the Second Army. In July, 1943, it transferred to Pine Camp, N. Y., to prepare for overseas service.

Sailing from the United States for the European Theater of Operations in February, 1944, the division trained at Camps Chiseldon, Ogbourne, St. George and Tidworth-Pernam Downs in Wiltshire, England.

By August of 1944 the "Victory" Division was in the thick of the Normandy campaign and moving on Le Mans. Sweeping between Coutances and St. Lo, as a part of General Patton's Third Army, the division embarked on a 300-mile exploitation behind the German Seventh Army. After the fall of Le Mans, the 5th pursued the enemy, wrecking their armor and inflicting high casualties all the way to the Seine River. In the Eure-Seine Campaign, following the plunge to the Seine, the 5th Armored Division distinguished itself, winning a commendation from the XV Corps Commander.

The beginning of September, 1944, saw the 5th, which had been shifted to the First Army, ready to start a 130-mile push from Paris north to Belgium. The division cut through the Compiegne Forest, crossed the Oise, Aisne and Somme Rivers. New Orders sent the unit racing another 100 miles to the Meuse River, advancing southeast below the Belgian border. Speeding onward, the 5th figured in the freeing of Luxembourg. On 11 September, 1944, the Our River was crossed in the vicinity of Stalzenbourg; Germany had been penetrated. In November, the "Victory" Division participated in the original crossing of the Moselle River. The men of the 5th rate the December battling in the Hurtgen Forest and on the approaches to the Ruhr River as the most bitter fighting they experienced. They lived in mud, rain and ice and were constantly exposed to tremendous artillery concentrations. This was the month of savage warfare that broke the German spirit; never again did the Nazis fight with the ferocity shown at Hurtgen.

Fighting hard in December, during the "Bulge" period, the 5th greeted 1945 by continuing to advance and by crushing enemy armor in the XV Corps objectives. At Coblenz, the unit smashed and then mopped up all enemy resistance. By spring of 1945, the division, then a part of the U. S. Ninth Army, had rolled to the Wesser River and in May was driving north of Brunswick; it reached the Elbe and fanned out in the vicinity of Tangermunde, 50 miles north of Madgeburg. In crossing the Elbe, the 5th Armored Division was the nearest U. S. unit to Berlin. Assigned to SHAEF after V-E Day, the division sailed for home on 2 October, 1945, and was inactivated on 11 October, 1945, at Camp Kilmer, N. J.

In addition to the division commendation received from XV Corps at the conclusion of the Eure-Seine Campaign, Troop A, 85th Reconnaissance Battalion (then 85th Cavalry Rcn Squadron, mechanized) was awarded a Presidential Unit Citation for outstanding performance of duty in action from 15 to 20 December, 1944, and Companies B and C, 47th Armored Infantry Battalion, received a Presidential Unit Citation for outstanding performance of duty in action on 4-5 September, 1944.

The entire Reserve Command was awarded a Presidential Unit Citation for distinguished action in the Hurtgen Forest. In that action the Reserve Command consisted of the 47th Armored Infantry Battalion, 10th Medium Tank Battalion; 95th Armored Field Artillery Battalion; Company C, 22nd Armored Engineer Battalion; Troop C, 85th Cavalry Rcn Squadron; Co. C, 75th Armored Medical Battalion and a Detachment of Co. C, 127 Armored Ordnance Bn. By virtue of the 5th Armored Division's outstanding successes in the campaigns of Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland, Ardennes-Alsace, and Central Europe, it proudly made good on its nickname: "V for 5th and Victory."

The 5th Armored Division gives new soldiers the rugged basic training required regardless of the arm or service to which they might later be assigned. The training at Camp Chaffee will be hard and exacting and will build you up to peak physical condition and give you a firm basis upon which to build your Army career. In addition to making you a well-trained, physically fit, disciplined basic soldier, the course is designed to assist you in becoming a better citizen both mentally and morally.

Indoctrination Period...

... made soldiers out of us ...

As Civilians we arrived at the initial receiving station at Camp Chaffee. This was our first stop on the first day of an eight-week basic training period.

During the eight weeks of basic training we will prepare ourselves to rise up and meet crises that threaten our democratic way of life. In order to fulfill such an obligation we must learn to be soldiers. Not only do we learn to use weapons, but during the indoctrination period we must learn the army way of life.

... from head to toe

Our first meal, shaving under army conditions, making army beds and many other small things are slightly different from civilian life. We are given an army haircut and are equipped with army clothes from head to toe. We are now ready to move into our home in the army....

... the Barracks, looking very much like Soldiers.

Striking Power

The following pages contain a pictorial review of the training given the new soldier at Camp Chaffee.

This training includes marching in squad, platoon and company formations, battalion and combat command parades and reviews, military courtesy and discipline, personal hygiene and sanitation under garrison and field conditions, first aid, defense against chemical attack, physical training, hot and cold weather indoctrination, interior guard duty, character guidance, inspections, and care of clothing and equipment.

In addition, each soldier is taught the care, function, and use of weapons. Each soldier in the Army has what is called his basic weapon, Caliber .30 M-1 Rifle. Beside work with the basic weapon the new soldier is trained to understand the mechanical functioning, capabilities and will actually fire Caliber .30 machine guns, Rocket Launchers, and both hand and rifle grenades. Advanced individual training at Camp Chaffee includes firing the 105 MM Howitzer.

This rugged schedule of training is designed to increase the "Victory" Division's STRIKING POWER.
